PINCKNEYVILLE, ILLINOIS

100th Anniversary

1865-1965

Marianne M. St. J.

The Lord's Prayer

OUR FATHER which art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth,

As it is in heaven

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts.

As we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil;

For Thine is the kingdom and the Power and the glory, for ever.

Amen.

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

*Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness:
for they shall be filled.*

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

*Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad: for great is your reward in heaven:
for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.*

Your Pastor

For the last seven of her first one hundred years, it has been my privilege to serve as pastor of the Pinckneyville First Baptist Church. I have shared the joys and sorrows of her members in the "faith once for all delivered to the saints." As I write this, my mind recalls many persons, already gone to their reward, who looked forward to this occasion. My life and this church are the richer for their contribution to us. I am most grateful for that long list of Christian people who, over the past 100 years, have contributed to and benefited from the ministry of First Baptist Church.

Every church is a mixture of failures and accomplishments. Ours is no exception. For our failures, we must claim credit. For our accomplishments, we must give God the glory. At the end of her first century of service, First Baptist Church is enjoying the greatest successes of her entire history. If the nine members who launched this church on its first century could be with us as we begin the second, they would "thank God from Whom all blessings flow."

In many ways, the past seven years have been among the busiest of my life. They have also been among the most rewarding. The support and encouragement I have received from the smallest children to the oldest members have inspired me to continue on in an earnest attempt to try to be a pastor to more than a thousand people. Where I have failed, you have been forgiving and patient. Where I have succeeded, you have been complimentary and encouraging. No pastor could ask for more. Because of all these things, First Baptist Church has a big place in my heart.

The future of our church is as bright as the promises of God. We have no reason to believe anything other than that the God Who has led and blessed over the first century will continue to do so throughout the second. Backed by the numerous blessings of 100 years, we prayerfully seek to do more than ever before to the glory of Christ.

In behalf of the entire Swinford Family, I want to thank First Baptist Church for the privilege of serving with you during these thrilling and wonderful days.

Church History

Around the world, 1865 was a crucial year; and during 1865, July was a month of decisions. In the Far East a rebellion was in progress; in England, William Booth led the Christian Mission, later to be known as the Salvation Army, in its first meeting. In America, the War between the States had drawn to a weary close; and reconstruction was underway. On July 29, 1865, President Andrew Johnson provided for the release of all war prisoners who would take the oath of allegiance.

In the little village Pinckneyville, in Southern Illinois, history was being made, too. On Sunday, July 30, 1865, nine persons gathered in the Old Temperance Hall on South Main Street, a hall that stood where the residence of Mr. Charles Doerr now stands, and were constituted a Baptist Church. Records do not agree on one of the names of the nine constituent members.

The names of the Brethren and Sisters are these: Andrew B. Hogard, Ellen J. Hogard, (his wife); Richard M. David, Catherine O. Davis (his wife); Charles Song; Lucy Malone; James P. Mason; Louisa Denny. One record gives the last name as Parthenia Church; others give it as Parthenia Turner.

The organization of the church was effected by the adoption of the articles of faith commonly called the New Hampshire Confession of Faith. Presiding over the body were Elder P. W. Jones and Joseph G. Rutter.

No doubt the new church was beset with financial problems. Following is an excerpt from an early record:

Resolved that each member pay a sum of money according to ability and inclination into the church treasury, and that it become a church fund for church purposes. (January, 1866)

When little more than two years old, the idea of building became a primary issue; and in December, 1867, a formal resolution on building was passed. These early years were years of struggle. It was necessary during some of that time for the church to receive aid for the pastor's support from the American Baptist Home Mission Society. Meanwhile, however, the church had been growing. Then, as now, revivals - sometimes called protracted meetings - were the order of the day. Elder Jones held three protracted meetings during his pastorate; 25 were baptized in August, 1865; 20 in March 1866; 12 in March 1867.

On March 29, 1868, the church was incorporated, taking the name of the First Baptist Church of Pinckneyville. The Old Temperance Hall was still home and continued to be until late in 1868. On December 27, of that year, the new building - the one we refer to as the Old Brick - was dedicated with Reverend Daniel Reid, then President of Shurtleff College, as the speaker. The building cost $3,080.60, of which all but approximately $750.00 had been paid before dedication. It was not until February 14, 1874, however, that the church was free from debt.

During the 1870's, the church had a struggle. There was a period when the church was without a pastor. A few faithful workers began a revival within the ranks themselves - a movement that resulted in a true revival. It was a church revival as well as a great ingathering.

Another great ingathering was experienced in February, 1872 with J. M. Billingsley leading. Thus through the years the church has grown, not by leaps and bounds, but by the steady process of reaching the lost by praying, preaching, and teaching.

Nor was teaching a mere word. In February, 1866, before the church was one year old, the Sunday School was organized with Brother R. M. Davis very possibly the first superintendent. The Sunday School, too, met in the Old Temperance Hall and on Sunday afternoon conducted a Bible class for church members. Strange as it may seem to us now, the first Sunday School was not organized by the church; but in April, 1867, the following resolution was passed:

Whereas we believe it to be the duty of every Baptist Church to foster and diffuse genuine and true principles, and that the Sabbath School is one of the mediums through which those truths and principles can best be diffused, RESOLVED: that as a church we will take under our own supervision the Sabbath School now conducted by some of the members of this church at this place.

Soon the importance of study for everyone was recognized. About eleven years after moving into the new building, another resolution was adopted:

Whereas we believe it to be the duty of all our members to study the Bible, and that the practice of assembling together for such study on the Sabbath day should be encouraged, therefore: RESOLVED: that we appoint a meeting of the church for that purpose to be held regularly each Sabbath morning at 9:30 or at such other hour as may be designated, and that we urge upon all members the importance of regular and constant attendance at such meetings and of gathering in to them their children and their neighbors. RESOLVED: that a Superintendent or leader be chosen by the church to serve until another shall be appointed and that such Superintendent or leader appoint teachers or assistants as many as may be necessary and report to the church at its business meetings such statistics and information as may be called for: that the church supply the necessary aids to Bible study and that the Superintendent be authorized to report the number of persons attending such meetings and such statistics as are usually reported by officers of Sunday Schools.

The Sunday School grew through the years. In 1881, one of the classes of the school fostered an interesting project. Perhaps no one now remembers the trees that once grew along the south and the east sides of the Old Brick Church. It was a class of young boys, who, in 1881, planted those trees. Dr. George Smith was the teacher of that class, and some of the boys were Fred Dobbs, E. K. Kane, John Kane, Ernest Millhouse, and Thomas Turner. The trees are gone, as is the Old Brick Church.

As was previously stated, the first building was dedicated in 1868. In 1905, the historic Old Brick Church was taken down to make room for a new church building. On New Year's Day, 1940, a fire raged through the church building. Extensive remodeling was called for, and at that time, the church building reached its final size and shape until it was razed to make room for the new Sanctuary in 1958.

The previous history spans a period of ninety years of faithful ministry to Pinckneyville and the world. What follows is an account of the past ten years which, of course, rounds out a century for First Baptist Church. This last decade has been full of significant events proving once again that "they (our spiritual ancestry) without us should not be made complete" (Hebrews 11:40).

During the ministry of Pastor Carvin C. Bryant (1954-1958), the Education Building, which provided one hundred rooms and was built at a cost of $171,000.00 plus the donated efforts of many of our people, was dedicated on June 5, 1955. Former Pastors Lee Swope and Archie Brown, men who had important parts in the planning and construction of this L-shaped Building which measured 128 feet north and south and 138 feet east and west, spoke at the Dedication Service. Dr. Noel M. Taylor, Executive Secretary of the Illinois Baptist State Association, also spoke at the Service. The Dedication Message was brought by Dr. Oliver R. Shields, Pastor of the Lafayette Park Baptist Church in St. Louis, Missouri.

On October 2, 1957, the Church voted to sponsor a Mission at Clarendon Hills, Illinois. On December 29, 1957, the church extended a call to Jerreal B. Buchanan of Wadesboro, North Carolina, to be pastor of the First Baptist Chapel of Clarendon Hills. He began his work on March 1, 1958, with only six members. Meetings were held in the North Prospect Elementary School. The Mission was constituted into a church on March 1, 1959, and was named First Baptist Church of Clarendon Hills. Property was acquired on which the first unit of a master building was constructed and dedicated on March 6, 1960. Maurice Swinford, Pastor of Pinckneyville First Baptist Church, brought both the charge to the church at the Constituting Service and the Dedication Message at the Dedication Service. The First Baptist Church of Clarendon Hills now has a membership of 284 and is being served by Pastor Carvin C. Bryant, a former pastor of this church.

On November 11, 1964, the church authorized the Trustees to secure a loan of $19,000.00 to provide interim financing to purchase a four acre building site for the Glenfield Baptist Church of Glen Ellyn, Illinois. In addition the church gave the Glenfield Baptist Church $1,000.00 to apply against the purchase of the property. The Glenfield Baptist Church began as a Mission of the First Baptist Church of Clarendon Hills. On March 9, 1965, the Glenfield Baptist Church paid off the loan secured by our church and the quick claim deed to the property held to secure the loan was returned. On March 11, 1965, the Glenfield Church took the following action: "The members of the Glenfield Baptist Church meeting in Business Session have voted a note of thanks to the First Baptist Church of Pinckneyville. Our church wishes to offer this expression of gratitude for the recent gift of $1,000.00 and the provision of interim financing for the purchase of a building site for our church. It is the desire of our congregation that you have this official note of thanks, and that recognition of this help appear in our minutes." Glenfield Baptist Church, Vera Cannon, Clerk; James E. Norman, Moderator.

On October 7, 1964, our church assumed the sponsorship of the Franklin Park Mission, Franklin Park, Illinois. Sponsorship at that time was understood to include prayerful support, counsel and cooperation, and $25.00 per week from our church. Pastor Jerry Jones served the Mission from the first on a part-time basis. He resigned as of Sunday, March 14, 1965. On April 21, 1965, our church voted to contribute up to $115.00 per week toward a budget of $202.00 per week for the Mission. It was unanimously voted to extend a call to Charles Gibson to serve as full-time Pastor. The church authorized a special offering to be received for the purpose of paying the expenses for moving Brother Gibson and his family from East St. Louis to Franklin Park. Authorization was also given by the church to request $150.00 per month pastoral subsidy from the State Missions Department.

On November 5, 6, and 7, 1957, to celebrate the Golden Jubilee Year of the Illinois Baptist State Association, the State Convention was again held in Pinckneyville where it was organized back in 1907. The opening session was held in the High School Auditorium with an attendance of more than 675. The other sessions were held in the First Baptist Church Auditorium. Dr. Archie Brown, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Vandalia and former pastor of Pinckneyville First, was elected president of the Illinois Baptist State Association thus becoming the first President of the Association's second 50 years.

Two other former pastors of our church have served as President of the Illinois Baptist State Association while serving other churches. They are Dr. I. E. Lee (1935-36) and Reverend I. E. Miller (1945-46). After having served two terms as Vice President of the Illinois Baptist State Association in 1962 and 1963, our present pastor, Reverend Maurice L. Swinford, was elected President in 1964 and again in 1965 thus becoming the first pastor of our church to serve in this position.

It was on April 2, 1958, that the church extended a call to Reverend Maurice L. Swinford to become our thirty second pastor. He and his family moved on the field in May, 1958. Under his leadership, these past seven years have been fruitful ones. The Education Building had been completed and the church with a $30,000.00 indebtedness was trying to decide whether or not to build the new Sanctuary. Sponsorship of the Mission at Clarendon Hills had just been assumed, and there were many other crucial decisions to be made. In July of 1958, work was begun to raze the old Sanctuary. Work on the new Sanctuary was begun in the Fall of 1958 and it was dedicated on May 1, 1960. There are so many beautiful things about the new Sanctuary, but one is of special significance. On top of the 98 feet high steeple is an open stainless steel Bible which contains an actual Bible. To many of us it seems to say: "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon ye, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly of heart and ye shall find rest unto your souls" (Matthew 11:28-29).

The Corner Stone Laying Service for the new Sanctuary was held November 29, 1959, at 11:00 A. M. Those having part in the service were Orvel Hill, James Dunn, Thelma Brown, Frank Keith, Vallie Kimzey, Irene Boquillon, Bob Dempsey, James Gregory, Stanley Keene, James Huggins, and Pastor Maurice Swinford. A copper box made and donated by Dale Biby was placed behind the stone. The box contained a copy of the history of the church, a copy of church action in regard to the Building, pictures and letters from the heads of organizations of the church, copies of local papers, a copy of the proposed budget of the church for the next year, and other interesting items. The cornerstone used was donated by the Randolph County Monument Company.

On February 28, 1960, the first service was held in the new Sanctuary. On May 1, 1960, Pastor Maurice Swinford brought the message at the Morning Worship Hour. In the afternoon, Dr. Mack Douglas, pastor of Tower Grove Baptist Church in St. Louis, brought the Dedication Message. Dr. George Schroeder, former member of Pinckneyville First and now Secretary of the Brotherhood Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, brought the message at the Evening Service. Former pastors attending the Dedication Service were Reverend Lee Swope, Dr. Archie Brown, and Reverend I. E. Miller.

On June 1, 1960, the Historical Society of the Illinois Baptist State Association requested permission to place a suitable plaque on the front of the new Sanctuary which would commemorate the organization of the Illinois Baptist State Association. The plaque was to read as follows: "In the frame Building that stood on this site, the Illinois Baptist State Association was organized on January 31, 1907, by messengers from 226 churches.

Officers elected were: Moderator, R. H. Flannigan; Assistant Moderator, J. K. Trovillion; Secretary, Charles H. Hitt; Assistant Secretary, J. D. Hooker; B. F. Rodman became the first Executive Secretary and W. P. Throgmorton was the first Editor of the 'Illinois Baptist'."

The bronze plaque was placed on the front of our Church Building by the Historical Committee of the State Association and a special service was held on the last Sunday of December in 1961, commemorating the organizing of the Illinois Baptist State Association. Mrs. Lena Thetford, a faithful member of our church, was present at both the organization meeting in 1907 and the special service commemorating that event in 1961.

In recent years God has prospered our church through both an increase in regular tithes and offerings and several bequests. In 1958, the church received $500.00 from the Charles Beck Estate. In 1956, the church received the sum of $5,000.00 from the James E. Huggins Estate. This amount was applied against Building Indebtedness. In 1961, the church received $1,275.00 from the estate of Martha E. Huggins. This money was applied on a parking lot which was needed due to the growth of the church. On July 11, 1962, the church received $5,000.00 from the Dempsey Winthrop Estate. This amount was applied on parking lot indebtedness. On August 7, 1963, the church received $10,000.00 from the Viola Hincke Estate. This money was applied on church indebtedness. On November 6, 1963, the church received word that it was mentioned in the Edward Hincke Estate. From this estate, the sum of $114,736.73 was received. On recommendation of a special estate committee, the church voted the following use of the money:

Cooperative Program	$10,000.00
Baptist Children's Home	1,000.00
Associational Parsonage Debt	500.00
Church Indebtedness	70,000.00
Trustees	10,000.00
(Pianos, Movie Projector and Screen, Office Remodeling, Chime System For Tower, etc.)
Purchase and prepare Kellerman Lot for parking	3,000.00
To apply on new Parsonage	20,000.00
General Account	Balance

On October 7, 1964, the church received $1,000.00 from the Mrs. Carrie Davison Estate. This amount was also applied on church indebtedness. All of this interest and concern expressed in the Wills of these members and friends, has enabled First Baptist Church to take steps and launch into new ministries that would otherwise be many years in coming to pass.

On March 1, 1961, two houses and lots owned by the Cunningham Estate and located directly south of the First Baptist Church were purchased for $7,500.00. Later, the Don Kellerman property which joins the Cunningham lot on the West was purchased for $2,500.00. These lots cover 150 feet on St. Louis Street and extend 100 feet back to the alley. The houses have all been torn down and the lots have been prepared for parking.

On November 14, 1963, a Church Constitution Committee was appointed. This committee worked many months to prepare a Constitution for our church. The Constitution was adopted by the church and has been printed and made available to all of our church members.

On August 5, 1964, our church purchased the Bob Baudison property located on St. Louis Street two houses East of the church. An architect was secured, plans for a new parsonage were accepted, and the work of construction was begun on that lot on April 27, 1965.

As we began our centennial year, 1965, the church was debt free and owned property valued at over $450,000.00. Our total mission gifts in 1964 exceeded $26,000.00. The resident membership is 763 and non-resident membership is 267 making a total membership of 1030. Enrollment in Sunday School at the end of 1964 was 928, and average attendance was 472. Training enrollment was 217 and average attendance was 104. The Woman's Missionary Union with its many auxiliaries and the church Brotherhood are also active in carrying out the Great Commission.

One hundred years is a long time. The First Baptist Church now has its 32nd pastor. Reverend Maurice L. Swinford has been preceded by Pendleton W. Jones, John H. Mize, L. C. Carr, Wm. H. Carner, David Matlock, David Huggins, E. C. H. Willoughby, J. Carroll Harriss, W. A. Jarrel, James W. W. Hunsacher, Jacob Cole, G. W. Danbury, C. W. Alexander, John D. Hooker, J. T. Brown, L. L. Stierwalt, J. B. Webb, J. L. Payne, P. C. Watson, J. A. McCord, I. E. Lee, R. A. Morriss, E. H. Zipprodt, I. E. Miller, W. T. Waring, Jack DeVore, T. W. Nelson, Ewell Payne, Lee Swope, Archie Brown and Carvin C. Bryant. Many of these have gone to their reward; others are still busy in the Lord's work. Each one has had a mighty part in contributing to the growth that has made this day possible.

A church is a mighty organization. Every member is a link binding the past to the future. We who are members now have received our heritage from those who have gone before. They, our predecessors, have kept their obligation to us, their descendants. Let us be no less zealous as we look to the future; and may we say with the Psalmist, "If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning and let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy." And as a church may we take to ourselves the admonition found in Proverbs, "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not to thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct thy paths."

Acknowledgement is made to Mr. E. G. Smith for the use of a manuscript prepared by W. S. D. Smith; a church directory prepared by Reverend E. H. Zipprodt and two brief histories prepared by Reverend I. E. Miller and W. T. Waring were used. Mrs. A. H. Anderson, Mr. E. K. Kane, and Mr. Harry Duckworth furnished some interesting information.

The Church wishes to thank Mrs. Helen Kuykendall for writing the history of the first 90 years and Mrs. Irene Boquillon for writing the history of the last 10 years to complete the history of the first century for First Baptist Church.
